Tuesday, February 15, 1955

Mary Washington College of the University of Virginia

Vol. XXVI, No. 9

Will Be Held April 6 to 9

CAROLE COLTON

An open invitation has been sent to junior and senior colleges throughout the country to the 10th Grand National Forensic Tournament to be held at Mary Washington College of the University of Virginia. Scheduled for April 6 to 9, it is under the sponsorship of the department of dramatic arts and speech and directed by Mark R. Sumner. Miss Carole Kolton of Miami, Florida, a senior majoring in home econoinvitation has a senior majoring in home econo-mics, is grand president of the Contests will determine the best speakers and readers in various fields including address reading, after dinner, book review, debate, dramatic reaum, informa declaration, dramatic reading, extempore, encomium, informative speech, original oration, poetry reading, response to the occasion, and situation oratory. The subject for debate is to be: "Resolved, that the United States should extend diplomatic recognition to the Communist government of Chine". ment of China.'

ment of China."

The Strawberry Leaf Society, an organization for the promotion of public activities among students, is in charge of arrangements for the tournament which was attended last year by over effect college.

Arts Festival

On February 18 and 19, members of Concert Dance Group including the dance majors, Minnie Brooks Rainey, Sally Hanger, Charlotte Corner, Taddy Turner, and Connie Livesay, are going to Greensboro, North Carolina to at-tend the Woman's College of the University of North Carolina's twelfth annual Arts Festival, Mrs. Read, instructor of Dance, will accompany them.

The program of events at W. C. The program of events at W. C. starts on Friday, February 18, with practices in the theater. That evening the performances by the attending colleges will be judged by Pauline Koner, a guest artist with the Jose Limon company, who will evaluate each dance. The director of television will select those dances best suited for T. V. and the ces best suited for T. V. and the students will perform them the next day, February 19, on W. C.'s television station. His selection for televising is based not only on the adaptability of the dances, but also the clearness of music and suitability of costumes.

On February 19, Saturday, the M. W. C. Dance Club members will participate in a master class under the instruction of Jose Limon. Then, if their dance of the mon. Then, if their dance of the night before should be selected, the Mary Washington students will perform on T. V. that night. After a dinner given for all the performers, a Jose Limon concert will be held.

The dance which the M. W. C. dance majors will present is a "Sea Chanty" with music by Paul White. It is a lyric dance with dramatic overtones that interpret the feeling of the seafarer's wives as their husbands go down to the sea in ships. The choreography of the dance is by the dancers themselves.

Freshman at Mary Washington College have elected Miss Elia Villanueva of Ciales, Eminet Puerto Rico, their representative the Recreation Association Miss Villanueva, is majoring in biology and is a graduate of Cia-

Placement Bureau Open To Students

The Placement Bureau is not to work for the U.S. Employment The Placement Bureau is not only a functioning organization for the seniors, as Miss Isabel Gordon, the head of the Bureau, points out, it also provides job apportunities for seniors and summer position at resorts and the like for other students. Any job opening is posted on the bulletin board to the extreme right as one enters Ann Carter Lee Hall. Usually, hours for interviews are posted, and job seekers are urged to sign up if they are the least bit interested. The summer resort job directory will be available in Miss Gordon's office, G. W. 312, in a few days.

posted, and job seekers are urged to sign up if they are the least bit interested. The summer resort job directory will be available in Miss Gordon's office, G. W. 312, in a few days.

Miss Gordon stressed the importance of the interviews here in G. W. because they prepare the girls for other interviews outside of college. Also, there are mimegraphed sheets on the whys and wherefores of application letterwirting and procedures.

Our placement Directory (County Schools, February 21 10:00 S. 00 P. M.

Mr. H. C. Paxon, Jr., Norfolk County Public Schools, February 23, 10: A. M.

Mr. C. rawford from Central Intellegence, will be back again sometime. Girls looking for jobs there must have typing.

to work for the U. S. Employment Service and later the State Department. A native of Fredericksburg, Miss Gordon, after an accounting job, returned here to work in the real-estate business before she came to MWC. She is a member of Beta Sigma Phi, a sorority for college graduate, and the local Business and Professional Woman's Club of which she was president for two years. president for two years.

Interviews in the immediate fu-

Forensic Meet Dance Majors To Attend Annual 320 Students Quality For First Semester Dean's List

Johnny Long will appear at Mary Washington College to play for the Formal Dance which will be held here on March 12.

Former Professor At M.W.C. To Be Acting President At Ripon College

Dr. Arthur L. Vogelback, a former Fredericksburg resident now dean of Ripon College in Wisconsin, will assume the presidency at Ripon pending the election of a new president, the college's board of trustees has announced. President for 11½ years, Dr. Clark G. Kuebler resigned recently to accept a position as provost of Santa Barbara College, Calif. A graduate of Wesleyan University, Vogelback attended Columbia University and received his Ph.D. from the University of Chicago in 1938. He was graduated.

his Ph.D. from the University of Chicago in 1938. He was graduat-ed Phi Beta Kappa, cum laude, and also is a member of Pi Delta Epsilon, Phi Nu Theta and the American Association of Univer-sity Professors.

He became an assistant professor of English at the Mary Washington College here in 1938 and taught at the institution until 1942. He returned to that institution after teaching at Ripon for a year and in 1950-51 he was a a year and in 1950-51 he was a visiting professor at Aarhus University in Denmark. He had interrupted his teaching career in 1942 to enter the U. S. Navy and left the service in 1946 as a lieutenant commander. In addition to his teaching, Dr. Vogelback has written several articles for scholarly publicationa as well as in the field of fiction.

publications as well as in the field of fiction.

Dr. Vogelback served on the Ripon faculty for a year as an associate professor of English in 1946-47 and returned in 1953 to assume the position as dean of the college.

Dr. Vegenback a native New

Dr. Vogelback, a native New York. M Yorker, is married to a MWC girl and is the father of one daughter, 4%. —Free-Lance Star sociation.

Korean Dean To Visit MWC

Chul Soon Im, dean of Sookm-yung Women's College in Seoul, Korea, will visit Mary Washington College Friday and Saturday un-der the auspices of the Educa-tional Exchange Program of the United States Department of State.

Having expressed a special in-Having expressed a special in-terest in the administrative opera-tion of women's colleges, in aid to foreign students and in art gal-leries, museums and libraries, he will have a schedule here to conform. It will also include meet-ings with the members of the Ori-ental Club and the International Relations Club and the international Relations Club and visits to his-torical places in Fredericksburg. The American Council on Edu-cation, through its Committee on eation, through its Committee on the Leaders Program arranges schedules for many of the foreign leaders whom the Department of State brings to the United States from about seventy countries for short visits under its Internation-al Exchange Program. These for-eign visitors are individuals of in-fluence and advanced professional fluence and advanced professional standing in their home communi-

Mr. Im will leave for the West Coast en route to Korea after his visit here.

During the Christmas Vacation

Miss Margery Arnold attended the Chicago meetings of the Na-tional Section Girls' and Women's Sports, and Dr. Charmenz Len-hart and Dr. Benjamin Early went to the National Modern Language Association meetings in New Foster.

York. Miss Lenhart is acting chairman of the Literature and Other Arts Division of this asson, Bettye Ambler Gillespie, Irene

Eleven Students Make Straight A's

Scholastic recognition has been given 320 students at Mary Wash-Scholastic recognition has been given 320 students at Mary Washington College of the University of Virginia for the first semester, according to the list released by Dean Edward Alvey, Jr. Straight "As" were received by Frances Brittle of Chase City; Elizabeth Davies of King George; Ralph Hamlet, Fredericksburg; formerly of Lynchburg; Helen Patricia Lipscomb of Waynesboro, Virginia; Marilyn Norquest, Arlington; Annipaton, Charleston, S. C.; Mary Treadwell, St. Petersburg, Fla., and Hettie Cohen, Laurelton, N. Y. Barbara Fultz of Roanoke. Among those on the dearls list, having received a "B" average with no grade below a "C", are: Carlton Ann Adams, Elizabeth Louise Allison, Beverly Ann Almond, Patricia Ann Alvis, Betty Jane Anderson, Mary Bachman

Jane Anderson, Mary Bachman Anderson, Jill Ann Arnold, Shir-ley Anne Arrington, Jean Wiley Ashe, Laura Jean Atkins, Mary Mignon Avery, Susan Oakley Ay-

Phyllis Marie Bailey, Sandra Ball, Jane Marshall Baptist, Pa-tricia Parker Barnes, Betty Louise Bass, Joan Erna Bauer, Mary Elizabeth Bean, Elizabeth Ran-dolph Bear, Alice Beazley, Eliza-beth Levick Beckham, Judith Ann Begel, Page Kinlock Beirne, Carolyn Bernard, Lillian Carol Bewley, Carolyn Suzanne Bidwell, Mary Katherine Bird, Elizabeth G. Blackwell, Carolyn Lisabeth Bohannon, Dorothy Barton Booth, Suzanne Mary Borke, Ann Mar-lene Bost, Marilyn Yvonne Boutchyard, Elizabeth Alderson Bowman, Joyce Lee Bristow, Frances Earle Brittle, Nancy Electa Brogden, Claudia Elizabeth Broome, Rhoda Evon Browning, Norma Jean Brumback, Susan Alter Buerger, Doreen Joan Bulley, Marian Leo-nie Burks, Rheta Nelson Burks, Meredith Eastwood Busby, Mar-

Meredith Eastwood Busby, Mar-garet McKinley Bush, Mary Ger-aldine Byrne.

Diana Jackson Caird, Susan
Mary Canter, Sue Blanton Carpen-ter, Elizabeth Ann Carrigan, Dorothy Ann Carwie, Willie
Christine Catlett, Barbara Faye
Carrelly, Elleg, Marie, Calle, Doros Christine Catlett, Barbara Faye Caverly, Eileen Marie Cella, Dorothy Ann Cellon, Beatrice Ann Carver Clark, Elizabeth Ann Clark, Patricia Arline Clark, Nancy Lee Clawson, Hettle Roberta Cohen, Mary Pauline Colthurst, Patricia Ann Conner, Marjorie Connock, Doris Anne Cool, Carol Lee Cooper, Barbara Loralne Copen, Marilyn Joyce Corbitt, Georgia Beth Crawford, Natalie Preston Crawford, Ruth Anne Culver, Carolyn Jane Curtis.

Jane Curus.

Elizabeth Louise Davis, Barbara
Anne Denham, Patricia Ann Dent,
Anne Frances de Porry, Mary Virginia Derieux, Harriett C.
Dickert, Claire Louise Donohoe,
Suzanne Almarylis Doran, Katherine N. Drogaris, Joanne Gail Dubin, Ann Lee Dunaway, Jean Phyllis Durham.
Patsy Ruth Eanes Patricia El-lis, Leah Laverne Eubank.

Derry Louise Fisher, Mary Jane Fisher, Mary Jane Fitchett, Mic-helle Anne Foley, Nancy T. Foley, Ann Lou Ford, Elizabeth Dalton

(Continued on Page 2)

A Valentine's Day Fable

Efficient noisy production filled every modern corner of the North Greeting Card Company. Despite the freezing February sleet that slammed against the frosted win-the freezing February sleet that slammed against the frosted windows of the spacious composing rooms and printing shops, thin young journalists were sweating and struggling to compose sentimental rhymes, statistic experts were sweating over sales charts and the pressmen were sweating over the machine type that they were casting with bright red, blue, green and yellow ink. Into such a world of roaring excitment was Vinnie the Valentine born.

To tiny Vinnie, his sturdiness and honest verse seemed cheap and shoddy beside the larger, more costly valentines covered with lace and satin and flowery poetry. "Why couldn't I have been printed a newspaper or a book or a dollar bill?" aqueaked Vinnie as he was packed into a carton marked "New York." "Oh, no, I hadda be a sissy, silly unimportant valentine and a mighty crumny one at that—no lace, no garden scenes—just a five-cent misfit in this world. world.

Vinnie would still be sadly sigh Vinnie would still be sadly sigh-ing to the bottles of ink and packs of notebook paper in the dark, dirty New York card shop that he wasn't worth the paper upon which he was printed if a shab-bily dressed young woman with blonde curls and smilling eyes hadn't tucked him into her scar-red purse. His doubling fears of red purse. His doubting fears of uselessness were confirmed when his pretty owner's eyes filled with tears and a few unoticed drops blotted her signature that she had written in a most tickling, un-steady hand. "She's ashamed— wishes I was grand and glamor-ous," mourned Vinnie.

The little valentine had no time for self-pity as he was tossed from one mail-sack to another, flung into trains and loaded great happiness.

aboard a silvery mail transport airplane. After many hours of fly-ing, the noise of the whirl of the motors was replaced by loud voic-es, furiously talking in a comple-tely unrecognizable language. As Vinnie bounced in a stiff mailbag in the hack of a seen over strange. in the back of a jeep over strange, rocky, frozen, barren land, he became as bleak and lonely as the northern Japanese hills stretching before him. Spluttering and jerking, the jeep stopped and after a happily-recognized Brooklyn voice bellowed out lists of names, Vin-nie was thrust into trembling glovnie was thrust into trembling gloved hands. A tall, lean, young soldier beamed down at Vinnie and hugged him against the heavy khaki jacket. "Glad I ain't covered with fancy frills now," chuckled Vinnie. All during the rapid march to the mess hall, the soldier clutched Vinnie in his right hand. The boy didn't notice that the globs of postaces and that the globs of potatoes and hunks of gravy-drenched meat on his tin plate were getting cold, for he focused all of his attention on reading and re-reading Vinnie's reading and re-reading Vinnie's simple message.

"This guy must get awful bored and discouraged stuck thousands of miles away from his home," mused Vinnie. "Why, I'm just a little scrap of paper, colored with ink and printed with: On this Valentine's day, Although I'm spart from you, you know I pledge my heart, my dear,

de ar, And all my love so true And all my love so true.

on my chest, but to him, I'm a message of love and faith." The lines of tension on his face softened into a smile when he saw me—sure, I'm as IMPORTANT and analysis as the major's me—sure, I'm as IMPORTANT and encouraging as the major's pep talk or a piece of hot apple pie. I'm a breathing spell in the grim waiting and waiting and waiting and waiting Suddenly Vinnie realized, in the cold, crisp night air, that he had fulfilled his purpose and his cardboard heart filled with a great happiness.

List, First Semester

(Continued from Page 1)

Goldman, Sarah Belle Gothlin, Helen Beatrice Grantz, Shirley Anne Gregory, Carol Weikart Groundwater, Abbie Rhoda Grove, Feggy Joyce Grubb, Ann Elizabeth Grubbs.

Grubbs.

Sallie Staples Hairston, Robin Georgia Hall, Mildred Carber Hallatt, Ronnie Lea Halpern, Ralph Macon Hamlet, Sally Fan Hanger, Louise Marion Hanselman, Karen Barbara Hansen, Sylvia Ann Hansen, Meta Marie Hanson, Christine Harper, Mary Eugenia Harris, Sonya Bodine Hart, Carolyn Elizabeth Hawley, Janice Ann Heidenreich, Judith Elaine Hendricks, Mary Elizabeth Hendrickson, Anne Henry, Patty Sue Hess, Corinthia Anne Hill, Elaine Hirsch, Loretta Ann Hichings, Carolyn Elizabeth Hodges, Gretchen M. Hogaboom, Frances Drake Hogue, Gioria Dean Hol-Carolyn Elizabeth Hodges, Gretchen M. Hogaboom, Frances Drake Hogue, Gloria Dean Hol-comb, Barbara Gray Holland, Anna Jean Hoover, Elizabeth Anne Hoover, Ann Elizabeth Graves Hounshell, Mayola Bever-ly Howard, Mary Montague Hud-son, Katherine Alice Huff, Ann Kathryn Humphreys, Jane Allene Hunter, Eugenia Fitzgerald Hurt, Catherine Clare Hyde.

Mary Joanne Insley, Harriet Frances Ireson.

Kit Elaine Johnson, Martha Lee

Anne Lynwood Jones, Johnson, Anne Lynwood Jones, Barbara Louise Jones, Jeanne Mayo Jones, Betty Lou Jordan. Patricia Lee Kefauver, Peggy Anne Kelley, Patricia Anne Ken-nedy, Edna Elice Kirkpatrick, Margaret Jenifer Kirson, Sue

Marion Hoyt Lee, Norma Con-stance LeFevre, Elise Polk Leh-man, Gretchen Ann Lewis, Helen Patricia Lipscomb, Joyce Carolyn Long, Martha Belle Lyle.

Parties Lipsconi, Joyce Carolyn Long, Martha Belle Lyle.

Joyce Eleanor McCann, Ruth Anderson McCulloch, Mary Ann McDermott, Patricia Townsend McGarty, Patricia Pearson McGee, Katherine Jane McGrath, Mary Katherine McKeown, Ernesttine Ruth MacLaughlin, Margartet Jane MacManus, Josephine Moore Markwood, Carolyn Louise Martin, Dorothy Judith Martin, Edith Joan Martin, Alice Ruffin Mason, Charlotte Rita Maxwell, Tonia Marie May, Alexandria Maynard, Phyllis Caroline Mellilo, Audrey Fay Merritt, Norma Louise Metzler, Cynthia Lee Michaels, Sally Rossiter Middaugh, Marian Thomas Minor, Mary Louise Morris, Patricia Ruth Morriso, Ruth Ann Morrison, Urginia Ann Morrison, Edith Mary Morse, Linda Merle Muden, June Bruce Muden! Murden.

Katherine Lewis Nelson, Virgina Davies Nettles, Anne Hulett ia Davies Nettles, Anne Hulett Newell, Marilyn Joan Norquest, Jane Norton, Barbara Bennett Nottingham, Noel Eleanor Nussey.

Sherry Leonard Ogden, Vernon
Estelle Oliver, Marion Julia Olzack, Collen Louise O'Rear.
Mary Margaret Papstein, Mary
Hannah Parker, Patricia Estelle
Parker, Mary Lyon Patteson,

Fleet Knapp, Carole Joyce Kolton, Shirley Livingston Koontz, Earbara Anne Kowalzyk, Ann Carol Kulesh, Phyllis D. Kyle, June Cecile Kyzer.

Marion Hoyt Lee, Norma Constance LeFevre, Eliase Polk Lehman, Gretchen Ann Lewis, Helen Patricia Lipscomb, Joyce Carolyn

Mary Alice Ratchford, Cather-ine Virden Rice, Evelyn Page Richardson, Patricia Ann Roark, Pauline S. Roberts, Louise Wilkes Robertson, Sue Rockhold, Mary Anna Rodems, Barbara Ann Ros-

Anna Rodems, Barbara Ann Roser, Elizabeth Alice Rountree, Alma Frances Rowe, Katherine Rozmar-ynowska, Virginia D. Rndgers, Ina Dillard Russeil.

Saily Dandridge Saegmuller, Teresa Alice Sajet, Juanita Saunders, Margaret Mary Schauer, Jean Schindler, Elaine Carole Schmitz, Jayne Sandra Schwarz, Nancy Jo Scott, Susannah Alice Sellar, Shirley Elaine Shank, Sarah Campbell Sharpe, Sarah Jane Shaw, Eliizabeth Anne Bradbury Shelton, Susan Soper Sheritf, Joan Elaine Shive, Nancy Lynn Shope, Barbara Ann Shotton, Shope, Sho bury Shelton, Susan Soper Sherift, Joan Elaine Shive, Nancy Lynn Shope, Barbara Ann Shotton,
Elizabeth Ann Shumate, Bernice
Sigman, Deborah Hunt Sink,
Carolyn Elizabeth Six, Norma
Elizabeth Skinner, Nancy Elizabeth Small, Barbara Herrick Smalley, Barbara Sue Smith,
Frances Elizabeth Smith, Dorothy
Hope Spence, Elsie Phyllis Spracher, Jane Dean Stewart, Cynthia
Ann Stockbridge, Polly Cobb Stoddard, Sue Straughan, Janet Lee
Stuart, Joan Mary Tengzelius,
Shirley Anne Thacker, Virginia
Thackston, Maria Teresa Torres,
Shirley Ann Totten, Judith Hill
Totty, Mary Frances Treadwell,
Norma Dawn Trotter, Marcia Norice Trumbauer, Meredith Allen
Turpin, Joan Ruth Tuttle,
Joan Jane Ulrick, Ann Reynolds Urguhart.

ice Trumbauer, Meredith Allen Turpin, Joan Ruth Tuttle.
Joan Jane Ulrick, Ann Reynolds Urguhart.
Joan Vames.
Kathleen Wall, Frances Victoria Wallace, Catherine Sandra Walton, Patricia Ann Waltz, Nancy Elizabeth Warren, Sally Buckman Watson, Nancy Loretta Watts, Martha Mozelle Wayland, Sigrid Harriet Weeks, Elizabeth Marie Weiland, Eileen Frances West, Nanalou West, Otelia Marie Westbrook, Ellen Louise Wheby, Corallyn Leavitt White, Margaret Somerville White, Mary Jane Whitelaw, Patricia Ann Whitmire, Mary Ann Whitemore, Alice Jean Williams, Josephine Jane W. Williams, Maymie Claire Williams, Shirley Ann Williams, Betty Carol Womack, Betty Shirk Woods, Virginia Perkins Woodson, Sue Gaskin Wright.
Patricia Ann Yearout, Carol Ruth Young.

Ruth Young.

Among commissioned vessels in the U. S. Navy, destroyer-type ships out number all others. That includes that whole list—warships, amphibious vessels, mine warfare, patrol and auxiliary vessels.

February Exam From Wellesley

Instructions: Answer all questions in the disorder given. Write with your left hand on the upper side of the paper only. No prophetic visions will be accepted in lieu of the material presented in class.

1. Compute the age of Methusala to the nearest .0001.

2 Pretend you are an ass in Jerusalem:

a) Who was heavier, Herod or b) Describe Ahab's bar and grill.

grill.
c) Find your way from the Mount of Olives to the Garden of Gethsemane.

Be specific but brief. Omit all relevant material.

Dove theory.

b) What was Moses doing in years.

5. Indentification:

a) Distinguish on the basis of the material presented in this Decalogue, demagague, gue, all agog, apoplectic, apologe-tic, apocalyptic, apocrypha.

b) Identify the following quo-tation: "Jahweh."

6. Discussion question: Give examples from your memory or imagination to support your viewpoint. Discuss the effects of the kings of Israel on the queens of Israel.

Miss Elizabeth Anne Barton be specific but orief. Omit a pleasant material.

3. Who begat whom? Why?
4. "A bird in the hand is worth two in the bush."
a) Discuss in the light of the love theory.
b) What was Moses doing in the high what was Moses doing in the high what was Moses doing in the high was made and the

Bullet

Student Weekly of Mary Washington College of the University of Va

Associate Collegiate Pres Associate Conegrate Press
Virginia Intercollegiate Press
Intercollegiate Press
National Advertising Service, Inc. Post Office Box 1115, College Station, Fredericksburg, Va. Subscription: $2.00 per year, single copy, 10 cents

EDITOR-IN-CHIEF

Nancy Phillips BUSINESS MANAGER MANAGING EDITOR Betty Lou Sydnor News Editor Barbara Kowalzyk Sigrid Weeks
Betty Baber
Barbara Pulley
Ozzie Mask Feature Editor Sports Editor _ Photographer ______Advertising Manager ______ Page Richardson Joan Callaha -__ Anne Daniel Patricia Poulson Proof Reader _ Mary Ann McDermott

Patricia Allison, Iris Kessier, June Kyser, Sally McClanahan, Jo Anne Parker, Beverly Priddy, Louise Robertson, Betty Whorton, Tobi Feingiass, Snookie Woods, Elaine Downing, Sonia Krages, Barbara Bandy, Jean Sterling, Sigrid Dorn, Betty Grange, Louise Robertson, Carol Cunningham, Edith Morse.

Arlington, Va., Feb. 7—Colonel John R. Lanigan, director of the 5th Marine Corps Reserve and Recruitment District with head-quarters here, announced today that Woman Marine 2nd Lt. Elizabeth M. Fass will visit the Mary Washington College campus February. 18 to Interview stuniterested in the Marine Corps' summer Woman Officer Training Program. She will be available for interviews at the Placement Bureau G. W. 312 at 10 c'clock, February 18. At 12:30 she will speak in lounge A to any interested students on the reserve training program.

Colonel Lasting six weeks, the courses are of the held at the Marine Corps Schools, and Rehead-libert of the head-libert of the ling expenses; Juniors $150.

Candidates receive a commission as second lieutenant in the Marine Corps Reserve upon satisfactory completion of the Senior Course. Students may withdraw from either course, without obligation, any time prior to being commissioned.

After commissioning and six months indoctrination, a Woman months indoctrination, a Woman Marine officer may step into any one of many varied positions open to her at posts throughout the United States, Hawaii and Europe. She will receive $270.00 to $338.00 per month, 30 days paid vacation annually, free medical and dental care, regular promotions in rank with increases in pay, an allowance toward the purchase of uniforms upon reporting rested students on the reserve training program.

Lt. Fass is the Woman Marine to her at posts throughout the Officer Procurement Officer for the 5th district, which comprises five states and the District of Columbia. She will be accompanied by Woman Marine Sgt. Peggy H. Rice.

The summer program, open to all qualified women college students except freshmen, consists of Junior and Senior Courses.

Officer Training Program Now Open To MWC Students

On February 5th, Peggy Akers, Claire Williams, Sue Carpenter, Cynthia Stone, Sandy Zick and Toni May leaped out of bed at 5:00 A. M., eager for the day's activities. Such shocking alertness at such a sleepy hour of the morning can be well understood—these girls were off to the Sweet-Briar Riding Clinic to hear Captain Littauer's (one of the world's formost instructors and author of many horsemanship books) lectures and watch his demonstrations. Besides shivering from the tures and watch his demonstra-tions. Besides shivering from the cold and trying to absorb every word of wisdom, the girls hurried-ly scribbled notes on the clinic's activities. Here is a brief conden-sation of Sue Carpenter's notes on the day spent at the inspiring and beneficial clinic:

and beneficial clinic:
Captain Littauer started the morning with a lesson on direct flextons in the indoor ring. The two horses used, ridden by Muriel Radcliff and Alice Wachenfield, had only had one lesson in flextions before the demonstration.
The next lesson, being instabrilization in the outdoor ring, Captain Littauer asked the audience ilization in the outdoor ring, Cap-tain Littauer asked the audience to pick out the most stabilized horse out of five trotting. Stabili-zation teaches the horse to main-tain even gaits by himself on loose reins and he is stabilized if he is able to move at an even rate of speed on the buckle. Cap-tain Littauer then worked with (Continued on Page 4)

Juniors Plan Benefit For Fri. and Sat.

By popular request — for all those readers who use The Bullet as a handy guide to what is going on around campus and for those who just want to be in the know— we have just what you have been looking for. looking for.

looking for.

If you have been dreaming of a night club a la Hernando's Hideflowsy, we have something even cooler. For a limited time only—
Friday and Saturday nights February 18th and 19th we, the Junior class, as your host, recommend "Something Cool."

If any further proof is needed to convince you that you must be at the opening of "Something Cool" then let us offer the following:

If you want something new and different, a little more than just beautiful girls, of course, they are nice too, then get on the bandwagon. "Something Cool" has both beautiful girls and entertainment also. George all the way—so get on the bal—go, go, go, to see the Junior benefit.

ONE REAL GONE CAL.

ONE REAL GONE GA DIG ME LATER PAPER

Pour les points gourmets...
pardon our French. Oo Ia Ia!!
Quelle revue!! Les jolies filles et les beaux hommes!! C'est magnifique—la musique et les scenes
!!! Tout le monde doit voir ninque—ia musique et les scenes !!! Tout le monde doit voir "Quelque Chose Defroid." Monsieur Pierre Luis La Parisienne 'Que' Marvaillosos son los hom-bres! Que' preciosos son las muj-eres! La presentacion es magni-fica! Los actos son terrificos! Vaga y vealo porque el ver es el creer. . .

RAMERO GOMES
EL PERIODICO EL MUNDO performance, D

Spectacular performance, Delightfully entertaining. Tally ho !!! Pip pip!!! Simply charming—more fascinating than Pica-

Gymkahana To Be On February 27th

For what special reason are the robins checking out of their Florida lodgings to flock to Fredericksburg? Even the elusive grounding refused six more weeks of sleep in favor of being on hand for the Big Occasion. Mary Washington riders have been gleefully preparing for the Great Day by preacticing sprints around the campus, balancing books as they run, while the hectic horses have been learning to play equine football, skid to a split-second stop and turn a sharp corner on three speeding legs. What spectacular event has upset the usual winter riding routine—of course, the hillarious, thrilling, horsewomen's holiday the GYMKHANA!

On February 27, the M. W. C. Cavalive-sponses of the strength of the proposed of the strength of the course, the hillarious, thrilling, horsewomen's holiday the GYMKHANA!

On February 27, the M. W. C. Cavalry-sponsored Gymkhana will be held at 2:00 at Oak Hill Stables be held at 2:00 at Oak Hill Stables for the pleasure and amusement of Fredericksburgers, college girls, dates, professors, traveling salesmen, bookies, deep-sea divers, bubble gum manufacturers and everyone else interested in entertainment and horseplay. Equally enjoying the horsebacktiding games, races and high (and higher) jumping contests will be exhibitors and their merry-making mounts.

ounts.

In recalling just a few of the prills and spills of the 1954 workhana — do you remember thrills Gymkhana — do you remember the Knock-Down-and-Out jumping class that was climaxed by a jump-off at five and a half feet AND the knock-down-and-drag-AND the knock-down-and-drag-out battles that went on in the Baloon Popping Contest? Cavalry Major Susie Miller has

Cavalry Major Susie Miller has arranged for a bus to leave Chandler Circle at 2:00 headed for the Gymkhana and for only the admission price of a quarter of a dollar, you'll enjoy a full afternoon of fun.

For several wonderful hours of pleasure, good sportsmanship,

UNFORTUNATE SITUATION

BY BETTY BABER

BY RETTY BABER

No relation to Lragnet but this is a true story. It's about a boy named Andrew Jackson. He was not a great statesman like his namesake. He would never be famous. He was, you would almost have to say, nothing.

Andrew was in the sixth grade. He was a tall, good looking boy, but his looks couldn't show in the unkept, dirty appearance. He had no friends and he didn't seem to want any. He was in public school now, but most of the schools Andrew had ever known were reform schools. Children can sometimes drew had ever known were reform schools. Children can sometimes be very cruel and Andrew's class-mates were no exception. They never allowed him to forget that he was not one of them. And An-

he was not one of them. And Andrew wouldn't do his part to try'to make them forget, either. Those in authority would smile sadly and say "Most unfortunate situation."
Yes, Andrew was an "unfortunate situation." And I'm bound to say, although I haven't heard of him since, (I was one of his class-mates), that he is still an "unfortunate situation."

mates), that he is still an "unfortunate situation."

In the course of the happy sixth grade school year, the glorious day of Feb. 14th rolled around. The day that crushes could be revealed in a most proper six gradiah way. The day that the boy across the aisle would know for sure that of all the boys in the lease woul liked him the best. And class you liked him the best. And from this day on until school was out in May, both you and he would blush whenever you looked at each other.

The 6th graders asked the teacher if they could have a party.
Of course they could have a party and so between classes of ancient and so between classes of ancient history and English they thought of some very good ideas. There would be a king and queen, Val-entines, refreshments, and decora-tions. It was the planning age, and everyone worked hard to make the party a gay success.

dilly Circus.

SIR HUMPHREY GILBERT laughter and excitement, don't miss enjoying your full portion of THE PICKWICK PAPERS GYMKHANA!

Patsy and Nell were fully unaware that they were class leaders. But they were, not because of any unusual talents, but because they genuinely liked people. It had been their personal custom since they began school as friends, to treat everyone in the class alike when it came to holiday gifts. At Christmas they had spent much time and very little money, making yarn lapel dolls for all the girls. This time they made fancy cookies for all the made fancy cookies for all the

But there was one person in the class who Patsy and Nell knew needed more than just some fancy cookies like everyone else would get. They knew Andrew would get no valentines and it didn't occur no valentines and it didn't occur to them what people might think if they gave some to Andrew.

So when they wrote the names on their envelopes and dropped them into the valentine box there them into the valentine box there were two skinny new ones with the name "Andrew" on them.

At the party the teacher opened the box and began distributing the Valentines. The children sat in stony silence when the called stony silence when she called Andrew's name—not once but twice!
Who on earth could be giving Andrew a valentime? But they didn't ask because they didn't even didn't ask because they didn't even like to talk to him.

And Andrew carefully opened his envelopes, took the valentines out and saw in straight, steady script, the names "Patsy" and "Nell." He didn't even read the cards but quickly put them in the pocket of his shirt.

But I know in my heart that

But I know in my heart that Andrew was pleased and that this day was a happy one in his "most unfortunate situation."

Chapel speaker on January 17 was John S. Badeau, president of the Near East Foundation and former president of the American University in Cairo, Egypt.

Mark Van Doren, author and lecturer, was convocation speak-er Jan. 19 when he read and dis-cussed several of his poems.

When a roommate gets you a blind date with his younger sister . .

and she turns out to be a real doll ...

For more pure pleasure ... SMOKE CAMELS!

No other cigarette is so rich-tasting P.S. No other brand has ever been able to match the pure pleasure in Camel's exclusive yet so mild!

blend of costly tobaccos! That's why Camels are America's most popular cigarette!

SADDLE SOAP

(Continued from Page 3)

two horses who rushed their fenders and demonstrated exercises to Todd, Guide Sargeant—Bonnie Escure them. The requirements of a good program ride and demonstrations of the program ride were given with helpful comments and editions, by Centain Littleans.

Success story department: a good program ride and demon-strations of the program ride were given with helpful comments and additions by Captain Lattauer. After a lesson in jumpling on con-tact with following hands, Miss Rogers (instructor at Sweet Briar) conducted a class showing exercises in lateral flexibility con-cluding the day's program exercises in lateral nexibility con-cluding the day's program. Words of warning to new riders department: A certain chestnut filly now being schooled by Susan Shiner and Cindy Welsh is destin-Shiner and Cindy Welsh is destin-ed to become a well-worked fav-orite. If in being too sleepy, in-different or aimiable to choose a mount for classwork, you would say "I don't care," you would soon find yourself riding Flirt, allas "I Don't Care." Besides Susan and Cindy, there are other happy girls was a re-are other happy girls who are now patiently training their new equine pupils. Cynthia Michaels and Pat Latham are schooling Sedan (Nugget's full-sister) and Sandy Zick is justifiable proud of Trea's their uniforms go congratulations to the newly promoted Cavalry officers: First Sergeant—Peggy Success story department: Here's hoping that the hound puppy donoted by Hoof Prints Club to the Chi Beta Auction will Club to the Chi Beta Auction will be as intelligent and prosperous as Rego (Arlene Silbiger's hound won in last year's bidding). Rego is most proficient in "heeling," "staying," "sitnig," and eating the most food in the shortest time.

Mr. Walther has been teaching riding in pantomime this past weekend—reward for serving as auctioneer for the Chi Beta Phi Auction.

Auction.

The word JNLBGHA doesn't mean a thing, but according to the latest reports AND Roget's Theasurus, the synonym for the word amusement is GYMKHANA (February 27-2:00 P. M.

Thompson's FLOWER SHOP

Two Houston Oils Again Win Places In Asheville Show

Two oil paintings done by Levin J. Houston III, of Fredericksburg, have been selected to be included in the Sixth Year-Around Exhibition at Asheville, N. C.

one flower study and a night scene of Houston's will be among those to be taken on a tour of communities and colleges in sev-eral southeastern states. The local artist was represent-ed in the same exhibition last

BUY U. S. SAVINGS BONDS

DINNER DANCING

Plantation Restaurant

8 Miles South of Fredericksburg Wednesday, Friday, Saturday and Sunday

Starting at 8:30

Students only and their escorts

R. E. Week Observed Here

Religious Emphasis Week at ance director, of Richmond, Mary Washington College of the University of Virginia was observed February 4-9. Sponsored annually by the Young Women's Christian Association, which is celebrating its hundredth anniver-sary this year, the program in-cluded watch breakfasts, informal seminars, personal conferences, and talks by the four guest speak-ers: Rev. Raymond Hain of Catholic University, Washington, D. C., Dr. William Oglesby of Union Theological Seminary, Rab-bi Ariel Goldburg of Congrega-tion Beth Ahabah, and Mrs. George Ossman, counseling guid-

The theme this year was "Meet Yourself." President Morgan L. Combs was honorary chairman of Regilious Emphasis Week and Miss Margaret Ann Garland of Village, Va., was student chair-

Please patronize our advertisers

DRY CLEANERS SHELTON AND TRUSLOW Phone ESsex 3-9293 1006 Caroline Street

Colony Studios PHOTOGRAPHERS Princess Anne Hotel

707 Princess Anne St. Phone ESsex 3-4591 with the extra stripe

BRENT'S

YOUR SHOPPING CENTER Phone ESsex 3-5533 1019 Caroline Street Always Something New

Plan Now for Executive Career in RETAILING

In KETALING Unique one-year course leads you to Master's degree. Individualized training for those desire top-paying positions, have average or better acdenic records, broad educational backgrounds. Training in nationally known retail organizations with pay (covers tuition, books, fees). Scholarships. Coed. Graduates placed.
Next class begins Sept. 6,1955.
Applications acpried now. Write for Bulletin C.

SCHOOL OF

RETAILING UNIVERSITY OF PITTSBURGH

PITTS VICTORIA THEATRE

FREDERICKSBURG, VA.

Afternoon at 3:15: Night, 7 & 9 Saturday continuous from 1 P. M. Sunday continuous from 3 P. M.

"DRUM BEAT"

Alan Ladd, Audrey Dalton

Added: LATEST NEWS EVENTS

SPECIAL SHORT IN

CINEMASCOPE

WED.-THURS., FEB. 16-17
"KING OF THE KHYBER RIFLES"

starring Tyrone Power
Terry Moore, Michael Rennie
SPECIAL SHORT IN CINEMASCOPE

FRI.-SAT., FEB. 18-19 "PASSION" Lon Chaney, Raymond Burr COMEDY — NEWS — CARTOON

